Split Trust (Jointly Owned Plans - Survivor To Benefit) – Bare

Important notes

Please read these notes prior to completion. The following trust form should not be used for pension plans.

Part – reserved to donor

This version of the split trust is designed for use with jointly owned protection plans with critical illness or total permanent disability cover issued by Royal London (and the divisions known as Bright Grey and Scottish Provident) where the surviving plan owner is to receive the benefits if the other dies. It may also be used with Scottish Provident Self Assurance and Pegasus Plans, provided the plan does not include the cover buyback option. One of its purposes is to allow payment of the plan proceeds to the trustees without grant of probate/administration/confirmation.

Part – (if both donors fail to survive first death or accepted terminal illness, critical illness or total permanent disability claim by 30 days) then bare trust for named beneficiaries

The additional purpose of this trust is to ensure that any benefit paid on death or diagnosis of terminal illness, critical illness or total permanent disability where both donors fail to survive the first death or diagnosis by 30 days, is outside the estate of each donor for inheritance tax purposes (the “gifted benefits”). In this case the gifted benefits are held upon trust for other persons as beneficiaries selected by the donors. Any surrender value is also a gifted benefit, to be held for the named beneficiaries.

If one of the donors survives the other's death or diagnosis of terminal illness, critical illness or total permanent disability by 30 days, the gifted benefits will be held on trust for the surviving donor. If the donors survive a diagnosis of critical illness or total permanent disability by 30 days, the critical illness benefit or total permanent disability benefit will be held for both of the donors.

Any surrender value is also a gifted benefit, to be held for the named beneficiaries.

At the same time the trust ensures that the retained benefits are held for the absolute benefit of the donors or the surviving donor. The retained benefits means the right to any payment comprised in the Trust Fund which is not comprised in the gifted benefits.

The trust is a bare trust, which means the donors must specify named beneficiaries to receive the gifted benefits in the event that both donors fail to survive the first death or diagnosis of a terminal illness, critical illness or total permanent disability by 30 days. The donors must also provide whether the named beneficiaries will benefit in specified shares or receive specified benefits.

It is important to note that the gifted benefits under the trust will always be paid to the named beneficiaries, even if this is no longer desirable due to a change in circumstances. If a named beneficiary dies, the trust provides that his share or benefit will pass to his estate, not to the other named beneficiaries.

The payment of premiums by the donors or either of them will normally be exempt for inheritance tax purposes by reason of the annual exemption or the normal expenditure out of income exemption. A transfer of an existing plan into trust will be a transfer of value for inheritance tax purposes but the amount of the value transferred will normally be negligible if the life assured is in good health at the date of the creation of the trust.

Any increase in the value of the trust fund (excluding the value of the retained benefits) will potentially be outside the donors' estates for inheritance tax purposes. For this reason, therefore, the donors must not be named as beneficiaries. If they are, then this will prejudice the tax effectiveness of the trust.

The split trust for joint life first event plans is also available as a discretionary trust.

The trustees may need to register the trust with HMRC's Trust Registration Service. This would normally only be the case following a claim being paid or if the trustees have a liability to tax. For more information on when the trust needs to be registered see <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/register-a-trust-as-a-trustee> or speak to your financial adviser.

The trust form and these notes in relation to its use are for general guidance only and are based on our current understanding of the law as it applies in the United Kingdom and HM Revenue & Customs practice. No responsibility can be taken by Royal London or any of its subsidiary companies for the interpretation of the law or future changes in the law or practice. Tax liabilities and the ability of the donors in law to set up a trust are dependent on individual circumstances. We strongly recommend that you take separate legal and taxation advice prior to signing the trust form and while the trust is in existence particularly if any changes are to be made to the interests of beneficiaries.

Completing the trust form (The numbering denotes the relevant clause in the trust form.)

The donors – creating the trust

The trust form should be completed by the donors before transfer of the plan to the trustees. The date of the trust is the date the trust form is completed and signed by the donors. The date must be inserted under the donors' signature on page 13.

The trust form can be completed for a plan that is already in existence or in anticipation of a plan being put in place where an application form has been completed or is yet to be completed.

Who are the trustees?

The trustees are the legal owners of the plan, holding it upon trust for the benefit of the person(s) specified in the trust.

- F1 The donors (to be entered here) are automatically trustees.
- F3 The trustees are the persons who will be entitled to the trust fund (as defined at F8 – see below), holding it upon trust for the donors (in respect of the retained benefits) and, if the donors fail to survive the first death or accepted terminal illness or critical illness or total permanent disability claim by more than 30 days, the person(s) specified in the trust in respect of the gifted benefits.
- F2 There must be at least one additional trustee entered at F2 for the trust to be effective, but up to four additional trustees may be nominated. The donors are automatically trustees: see above. We recommend that at least two additional trustees be appointed at the outset since an additional trustee will be required if the death of a donor results in there being only one trustee remaining. If the donor and the single additional trustee die before the plan is paid and there are no other additional trustees, probate or confirmation will be required before payment can be made. All the trustees will normally be required to sign the discharge form issued by the insurer in respect of any payment of plan monies.

We strongly recommend that one of the trustees be independent i.e. someone who is not a beneficiary or donor of the trust. Trustees must be aged 18 (16 in Scotland) or over.

The full name, including any middle name, and address of each additional trustee must be completed. The additional trustees may sign on the same date as the donors or at a later date, but they must not sign before the donors have signed the trust form.

- D2 The donors may appoint new trustees to act with the existing trustees of the trust. After the donors' deaths, the trustees may appoint new trustees.
- D3 The donors, so long as there are two trustees or a corporate body still acting after the removal, may remove a trustee from office.

What is included in the trust?

- F8 The plan is the trust property, which includes all of the benefits under the plan. This comprises the gifted benefits (see F10) i.e. all of the benefit paid on death or diagnosis of a terminal illness, critical illness or total permanent disability arising under the plan which is to be held on trust for the donors' beneficiaries in the event of both donors failing to survive the first death or accepted terminal illness, or critical illness or total permanent disability claim by more than 30 days, and the retained benefits (see F11), i.e. the benefits arising under the plan which are not included in the gifted benefits and which are to be held for the donors absolutely.
- F4 Details of the application for the plan or of the plan itself if it is already in force should be inserted in box (a) or (b) as appropriate. If the plan is not in force yet, the application date will be the date the paper application was completed or the date the online application was submitted. The trust form can also be completed in anticipation of an application being submitted, in which case the date of the application will be the date the paper application form is to be completed or the date the online application is to be submitted. This means the trust form will pre-date the application.

The named beneficiaries

The donors must choose to complete either F12 i, or F12 ii. The named beneficiaries will benefit in the appropriate shares or will receive the appropriate benefits, depending on which section is completed. If the plan is a Pegasus plan, the donors should complete section F12 i.

- F12 i If the donors choose to complete this section, they must specify named beneficiaries. The donors must also specify the appropriate shares; the percentage share of the total gifted benefits that each named beneficiary is to receive. The percentages must total 100%.
or

- F12 ii If the donors choose to complete this section, they must specify named beneficiaries. The donors must also specify which gifted benefit each named beneficiary is to receive.

For example –

Type of cover	Person covered	Cover amount	Cover term
Life or critical illness cover	Alan Person	£100,000	25 years
Life cover	Alan Person	£10,000 per annum	10 years (example – family income benefit)

The gifted benefits must be written on the trust form in exactly the same way as they appear in the Cover summary or policy benefit schedule or if this has not been received yet, the quote.

It is important to note that the named beneficiaries and the appropriate shares or appropriate benefits cannot be altered after the trust is created. If a named beneficiary dies, the trust provides for his share to pass to his estate.

The donors must not be named beneficiaries in order to ensure that the tax effectiveness of the trust is not prejudiced.

Signing the trust

- G. The trust form must be signed by the donors in the presence of a witness who must sign against each signature. The date must be completed underneath the donors' signatures. The witness must be independent, over 18 (16 in Scotland) and not a relative of the person whose signature is being witnessed or a named beneficiary or a trustee. For example, a professional adviser may be a witness. The witness must also enter their full name and address.

The additional trustees should sign at the end of the trust form, adding the date of their respective signatures. This is to confirm acceptance of their appointment as trustees. The additional trustee(s) must sign the trust form after the donors and a witness have signed, though the additional trustees do not need to sign on the same date – they may sign at a later date.

If an additional trustee is a corporate body, the authorised signatory's name and the capacity in which they are signing must be added.

Once signed, a copy of the trust form must be returned to us for noting. You should not send us the original form, which should be kept with the plan documents and other trust papers.

A Introduction

- A1 The Donors are the beneficial owners of the Plan and wish to declare trusts on which the Plan is held and for that purpose appoint themselves and the Additional Trustees as the initial Trustees of this Trust Deed.
- A2 If the Donors complete Clause F12 i the provisions of Clause F12 i shall apply.
If the Donors complete Clause F12 ii the provisions of Clause F12 ii shall apply.
- A3 The Definitions in Part F shall have the meanings set out in that Part.

B Trust Provisions

- B1 The Trustees shall hold the Retained Benefits upon trust for the absolute benefit of the Donors.
- B2 The Trustees shall, subject to the provisions of Clause B3, hold the Gifted Benefits upon trust for the benefit of the Named Beneficiaries either (A) in the Appropriate Shares specified in Clause F12 i or (B) as to the Appropriate Benefits in Clause F12 ii and if no such shares or benefits are specified and there is more than one Named Beneficiary then in equal shares.
- B3 i Where the Gifted Benefits include any benefit payable on the person covered being diagnosed with a critical illness or total permanent disability, both as defined in the Plan then, in the event of the person covered, or if there is more than one person covered either of them, being diagnosed as suffering from a critical illness or total permanent disability, and the Donors or one of the Donors surviving such diagnosis by 30 days, the Trustees shall hold the benefit payable on diagnosis of a critical illness or total permanent disability or both as the case may be for the absolute benefit of the Donors or the survivor of them.
- B3 ii Where the Gifted Benefits include any benefit payable on the death of the person covered then, where the Donors are two people, in the event of the death of the person covered, or if there is more than one person covered either of them, either within 30 days of the diagnosis of a critical illness or otherwise and one of the Donors surviving such death by 30 days, the benefit payable on death shall be held for the absolute benefit of the surviving Donor.
- B3 iii Where the Gifted Benefits include any benefit payable on diagnosis of a terminal illness then, where the Donors are two people, in the event of the person covered, or if there is more than one person covered either of them, being diagnosed as suffering from a terminal illness and the Donors or either of them surviving such diagnosis by 30 days, the benefit payable on diagnosis of a terminal illness shall be held for the absolute benefit of the surviving Donor.
- B4 Subject to the provisions of Clauses B1 and B3, the Trustees may not pay or apply the Trust Fund or any part of it to or on behalf of the Excluded Person.
- B5 Notwithstanding that a Named Beneficiary has not yet attained full legal capacity (a "minor") he is nevertheless absolutely entitled to any income produced by the capital of the Trust Fund to which he is entitled
- B6 Subject and without prejudice to Clause B5 above and to any exercise of the power conferred on them by Clause C12 the Trustees may (at their sole discretion and in such manner as they think fit) apply the whole or such part or parts of the income, whenever arising, to which a Named Beneficiary who is a minor is entitled, for or towards his maintenance, education or benefit. Income which is not so applied shall be retained by the Trustees who shall hold the same with and subject to the administrative powers and provisions of this Deed which are applicable to the Trust Fund upon trust for the Named Beneficiary absolutely.

C Administrative Provisions

Such powers shall not be restricted by any principle of construction but shall operate according to the widest generality of which the foregoing words are capable, notwithstanding that certain powers are more particularly set out in the following clauses.

C2 Power of investment

- C4 iii To require the Trustees to exercise any powers they may have of compelling such distribution.
- C4 iv To insist on the investment of any part of the Trust Fund in assets which produce income.

C5 Transfer of Trust Fund

Notwithstanding that a beneficiary is absolutely or indefeasibly entitled in possession to a share of the Trust Fund he shall not be entitled to call for the transfer to himself of his share of any divisible asset if such transfer would in the opinion of the Trustees reduce disproportionately the value of the asset remaining in the hands of the Trustees or other realisation of any indivisible asset unless such transfer or sale is called for by persons of full legal capacity who together are the owners of the entirety of the beneficial interests in the asset concerned.

C6 Life assurance

The Trustees may take out or take over policies of assurance on the life of any person with full power to surrender, vary or otherwise deal with any such policies as if they were the absolute owners of these policies.

C7 Power to lend

The Trustees may lend money or assets comprised in the Trust Fund to any person beneficially interested in the Trust Fund either with or without security, on such terms (whether or not including provision for the payment of interest) and generally as the Trustees think fit.

C8 Power to borrow

- C8 i The Trustees may borrow and raise money either without security or on the security of the Trust Fund, any part of it or any assets comprised in it, for any purpose (including the investment of the money so raised as part of the Trust Fund) and may mortgage, charge or pledge the Trust Fund, any part of it or any assets comprised in it, as security for any money so raised.
- C8 ii The Trustees may enter into borrowing arrangements jointly with other persons, whether involving joint or several liability.

C9 Powers in relation to real property and chattels

- C9 i The Trustees shall have all the powers of an absolute beneficial owner in relation to the disposition, development and improvement of any land comprised in the Trust Fund.
- C9 ii The Trustees shall not be bound to maintain any building or other structure on land comprised in the Trust Fund or to preserve or repair any chattels or moveable property comprised in the Trust Fund.

C10 Power to permit occupation of property and enjoyment of chattels

The Trustees shall have power to permit any person beneficially interested in the Trust Fund or any part of it to occupy, or reside in or upon, any real or immovable property, or to have the enjoyment and use of chattels or moveable property for the time being comprised in the Trust Fund, on such terms as to payment of rent, rates, taxes and other expenses and outgoings and as to insurance, repair and decoration, and generally upon such terms as the Trustees think fit.

C11 Power of appropriation

The Trustees may appropriate any part or parts of the Trust Fund in or towards satisfaction of the interest of any beneficiary and may for such purpose place such value on any property as they think fit.

C12 Powers in relation to minors

The Trustees may pay or transfer any assets comprised in, or any income of, the Trust Fund to the parent or guardian of a minor who is beneficially entitled to such assets or income, and the receipt of such parent or guardian shall be a full discharge to the Trustees.

C13 Power to appoint agents

The Trustees shall have power to employ one or more of their own number or other suitably qualified person or persons, other than the Excluded Person, to advise on the administration of the Trust, and to pay such person or persons out of the Trust Fund appropriate remuneration for his or their services without prejudicing the right of any Trustee to resign office.

C14 Power to delegate

The Trustees shall have power to delegate the investment of the Trust Fund on a wholly discretionary management basis.

C15 Trustee charging

A Trustee which is a trust corporation or corporate body authorised to undertake trust business shall be entitled to charge and be paid such remuneration (A) if it is appointed by the Donors as may be agreed by the Donors prior to such appointment and (B) if it is appointed otherwise than by the Donors, in accordance with its published terms for acting as a trustee.

C16 Power of restriction and amendment

The Trustees may release or restrict the future exercise of any power conferred on them and amend or add to the administrative provisions of the Trust by deed or deeds.

D Appointment of Trustees

- D1 There shall at all times be at least two Trustees unless a corporate body is a Trustee.
- D2 The power of appointing a new Trustee or Trustees shall belong to the Donors during their lifetimes or for so long as the Donors retain full legal capacity (and where two persons are the Donor this power shall be exercisable by them jointly during their joint lifetimes and then by the survivor of them during his lifetime).
- D3 The Donors (or surviving Donor) for so long as the Donors retain full legal capacity, may remove one or more of the Trustees by sending a Notice of Removal in writing to the Trustee in question at his last known address. The sending of the Notice by recorded delivery post will be deemed due service of the Removal Notice. The removed Trustee shall co-operate (without expense to him) in executing any documents or consents required in order to terminate effectively his Trusteeship and to vest the Trust Fund in the continuing Trustees. This power of removal shall be exercisable only if there are at least two persons remaining as Trustees after the removal of any Trustee, unless a corporate body remains as sole Trustee after the removal. On the Donors' (or surviving Donor's) death or incapacity this power of removal shall vest in the continuing Trustees, subject to the same conditions.

E Ancillary Provisions
